

STRATEGIC PLAN

2014 – 2017

Adopted 12.16.13

*Helping homeless youth move...
“from surviving to thriving”*

SUSTAIN & STRENGTHEN

Avenues will sustain and strengthen its existing programs to ensure homeless youths are able to move from surviving the streets to thriving young adults.

GOALS AND STRATEGIES

Continuously seek ways to improve programming to have a lasting impact on the homeless youth supported, as measured through online self-assessment, interactions with staff and other data capture and analysis.

1. Fully utilize the online self-assessment evaluation tool, learn from it, and enhance and adjust programming, as appropriate and needed. Improve other forms of capturing and evaluating outcomes.
2. Advance commitment to principles-based youth work (see staff development goal area).
3. Expand positive youth engagement activities through which youth can build relationships, give back to their community, learn leadership skills, and mature. Create meaningful youth leadership opportunities within Avenues and the broader community.
4. Engage youth in social justice learning and activities.
5. Expand youth employment and job training opportunities with business and nonprofit partners in the community.
6. Explore work experience opportunities for youth within Avenues. Explore creating or connecting with a social enterprise to employ youth and give them leadership, job skills and management opportunities.
7. Strengthen independent living skills programming through volunteers, partnerships and staff. Fully implement the Rent Savings Plan so youth get practice saving money and planning for the future.
8. Expand programming through which youth may strengthen their relationships with family and other persons important to them (e.g., family counseling, family reunification services, events and activities).

Have a well-qualified, trained, diverse and stable direct service team that applies a principles-based approach and social justice lens to its work with homeless youth.

1. In collaboration with partners, produce a training program on principles-based youth work.
2. Enhance hiring practices with tools to identify candidates who have capacity to provide principles-based care to youth.

3. Implement a professional development plan for staff and candidates with capacity but lacking experience.
4. Enhance hiring practices and staff trainings to increase staff ability to apply a social justice lens to their work.
5. Improve Avenues' wage scale and employee benefits to provide living-wage jobs, decrease employee stress in their personal lives, improve recruitment and performance, and minimize turnover.
6. Integrate skilled, trained volunteers to complement and support the direct service team.
7. Build strong team ethic within Avenues through communications and shared leadership work to fully align program and administrative staff.
8. Apply a principles-based approach and social justice lens in Avenues' relationship with and support of its employees.

Build and engage in strategic alignments and partnerships to optimize opportunities for our community's homeless youth.

1. Seek opportunities to collaborate with partners and like organizations to share training resources to align staffs and provide cost-effective trainings.
2. Build a collaborative website with real-time shelter bed availability and full range of services available to homeless youth to improve ease of access to services for youth and their advocates, while also gathering data on homeless youth numbers and needs.
3. Actively engage partners and encourage a high level of collaboration and alignment.
4. Seek and implement opportunities to align Avenues with partner agency services to optimize capacity and ensure youth are able to access the most appropriate services the first time.
5. Build partnerships with agencies and organizations to access their program strengths in areas needed by Avenues' youth (e.g., job training and employment, family counseling).
6. Participate fully in government-led planning efforts, including Heading Home Hennepin, Heading Home Minnesota and Metro Youth Services Redesign.
7. Build and maintain strong relationships with government and quasi-government partners.
8. Build and maintain positive relationships with elected officials at all levels of government.

Grow the existing host home programs so they are at full capacity.

1. Implement targeted and intensive host recruitment tactics.
2. Conduct outreach to all youth referral sources to broaden youth participation.
3. Ensure hosts receive strong trainings on setting appropriate expectations of youth, understanding power dynamics in the host-youth relationship and understanding the connection of social justice issues with homeless youth.

Ensure youth in the host home programs are sufficiently supported so they have a positive experience in the program, address needs, build skills and transition successfully to stable living arrangements.

1. Increase Avenues' in-house case management capacity and/or take steps to ensure referring partners provide sufficient case management support. Develop memorandums of understanding with partners who refer youth and provide case management support.
2. Review program evaluation process and identify improvements, as appropriate.

Select and employ an electronic client record system that enables the agency to improve program evaluation, effectiveness and efficiency.

1. Select or build and implement an electronic records system for the Shelter & Transitional Living Program. appropriate "coordinated intake and assessment system."
2. Participate in community efforts to implement a client-centered and
3. Ensure our electronic records system is fully integrated with the coordinated system.

EXPAND & ADVANCE

Avenues will 1) support more homeless youth by doing more of what it does well and 2) join with others in the community to advance real social change to prevent youth homelessness.
