With your support, your ideas, your work, and your love, we know that Avenues will continue to succeed in this mission.
Dear friends,

Earlier this year, while at Minneapolis Avenues, I overheard a young person in the hallway talking on their phone, saying “No, I haven’t left yet, I’m still at home.” This casual line and the sentiment behind it struck me. It’s what we want every young person at Avenues to feel, that while they are with us that they are at home.

Over the course of this last year, much of the pre-pandemic life has returned to Avenues. We have been building back to full capacity, while maintaining emergency quarantine spaces. We have resumed activities that not only support the youth in their journeys, but that also create the homey and familial atmosphere that makes Avenues so special.

It is often the small things that create the biggest impact. For example:

- Taylor, a Youth Support Specialist at Brooklyn Avenues, coming in on a day off to decorate the door of a young man who didn’t think anyone would remember his birthday.
- LaReina, a Youth Advocacy and Engagement Specialist at Minneapolis Avenues, starting a walking club and getting several youth outside twice a week to explore their neighborhood and take photos.
- Maia, with ConneQT, diligently delivering bikes to every youth staying in our community-based housing program.
- Karesia, the Young Families Program Manager, scheduling her young moms to have a photo-shoot with their little ones for Mother’s Day.

It is a continuous source of pride for Avenues that we have staff who are so dedicated to the success of young people.

The number of young people that we supported was slightly lower than in past years, but we know that this was due in part to the longer than average stays in programs. We are so proud that 71% of youth transitioned from Avenues programs to stable housing and are on a pathway to achieving their dreams and goals.

As we look forward to the future and as we continue to explore ways to deepen our impact, we are determined to make sure that every youth who comes through our doors knows that this is their home for as long as they stay with us. With your support, your ideas, your work, and your love we know that Avenues will continue to succeed in our mission.

Best regards,

Katherine Meerse, Ph.D.

"Avenues had a positive impact on me. I still keep in contact with my host almost 4+ years later... It made me feel like I was important to someone, a priority of some sort. I was no longer doing this on my own; I felt supported."

—Tabitha, a former youth from ConneQT
“WHEN I CAME TO AVENUES, THEY IMMEDIATELY SIGNED ME UP FOR EBT, food stamps, and got me jobs, paid for my GED. A lot of shelters don’t do that. They just provide a roof.”

-Emerson, a former youth of Minneapolis Avenues

“AVENUES GAVE ME THE CHANCE to focus on myself. I got the chance to grow and become the adult I want to be. They gave me food, a warm bed, a place to stay, but most of all people who love and support me!”

-Judy, a former youth of Minneapolis Avenues

"One of the biggest things I want people to know is that being here is LIFE CHANGING. You will have people here that support you, program staff feels like a family, and Avenues feels like a second home.”

-Alexi, A youth of Brooklyn Avenues

"I MET A LOT OF GOOD PEOPLE. I FELT SAFE. I felt safe with everyone, I still feel safe with everyone. It is weird to have adults in your life that care about you."

-Angel, a former youth of ConneQT
"Avenues is like home because I feel psychologically safe. We are a team. No one is above another."

-Karesia Coley
Program Manager, Young Families

"Brooklyn Avenues feels like home similar to being at your grandma's house for the weekends/holidays when you were younger. You know how all your cousins are there, aunties and uncles? All in one place, at the same time. Learning and growing through interacting with one another. Everyone brings their own uniqueness to the home as well as acknowledging and accepting the greatness in others. We all come individually with a different journey. But together we want a positive outcome and to have made a difference."

-Rosie Irons
Youth Advocate and Engagement Specialist, Brooklyn Avenues

"I love coming to work and seeing the inspiring artwork, smelling the great meals being prepared, and feeling the warmth of a home."

-JJ Fournelle
Human Resources Manager

"Home is about feeling supported, about being able to be your full self without having to censor aspects of who you are in order to get your needs met. It's where you're among people who are kind to you and if you're in trouble, they will help you. It is community. ConneQT aspires to be that."

-Ryan Berg
Program Manager, ConneQT

"I am just going to speak what is on my soul. Avenues feels like a strong, loving, and caring family. Its safe, you feel like you belong."

-Toni Wagner
Youth Support Specialist, Minneapolis Avenues
COMMUNITY PARTNER HIGHLIGHTS

In every week, of every month, and in every way, our community shows up for Avenues for Youth to ensure our shelves are stocked and our youth have the resources they need to be authentically themselves and find success on their journey to stable housing and bigger life goals!

While there is not enough space to recognize every supporter, partner organization and activity, we would light highlight a few special and innovative ways our community has supported Avenues for Youth.

September Sustainers with a Favorite Senator!

Minnesota State Senator Scott Dibble made a personal challenge to the community that he would donate $25 for every new sign-up for our September Sustainers Campaign. Thanks to Scott and his husband Richard Leyva’s generosity and advocacy over 40 people signed up!

Boston Scientific Leads a Binder Drive

Boston Scientific’s Pride Employee Resource Group led a first of its kind drive to supply chest binders for transgender youth in the ConneQT Program. Boston Scientific donated enough so that each youth could have multiples!

Topline Financial Credit Union’s Bike Bonanza

Topline Financial came through with a donation of a dozen bikes for youth in the ConneQT Program and Minneapolis Avenues house. These bikes provided the youth with transportation, freedom, and some summer fun.

Thank you to all of our wonderful volunteers and community partners both highlighted and those not mentioned.
